

Children's Nutrition and Learning Project

Volunteer Job Descriptions

Volunteers will work in collaboration with London InterCommunity Health Centre staff and other volunteers to support participants by building on their strengths.

Title: Volunteer -- After School Program Assistant

- Duties:
- * Assist students with homework/literacy or numeracy activities
 - * Support students in art/craft/drama, and other creative activities
 - * Help facilitate fitness and recreation activities
 - * Help with preparation of healthy snacks/meals
 - * Ensure supervision and safety of children at all times
 - * Report all incidents to staff
 - * Provide feedback to staff
 - * Assist with program planning, if needed
 - * Assist with program space set-up, clean-up, & tidying

Qualifications:

- * Genuine concern for children
- * Tutoring/mentoring skills
- * Creativity in engaging with and motivating children
- * Good problem solving skills
- * Appreciation of Health Promotion framework and strategies
- * Non-judgemental
- * Reliable
- * Ability to work in a confidential setting
- * Good communication skills
- * Team player

Time Frames:

3:30 – 6:00 pm Monday – Thursday

Supervisor:

SHAC Program Leaders
London Intercommunity Health Centre Community Worker

Benefits:

- * Enhanced skills working with children
- * Gain understanding in using capacity-building model
- * Gain understanding of Health Promotion framework and strategies
- * Valuable experience when applying to academic institutions and for employment